GUNMEN READY TO GO TO DEATH CHAIR

Ossining, N. Y., April 8.—"It seems boys, that every time I come into the death house that I am the bearer of bad news," said Warden Clancy of the Sing Sing prison last night as he stood close to the cells of the four Rosenthal gunmen and told them that their appeal to Governor Glynn for clemency or a new trial had been ineffectual and that the governor had decided not to interfere with the carrying out of the death penalty.

"Gyp the Blood" Horowitz was the coolest of the four. "We don't blame you Warden," he said.

"You can't help bringing us the bad news, but I'm sorry the governor turned us down. We won't give you any trouble, Warden. We'll take our medicine."

"Whitey Lewis" Seidenshiner said he would go to the chair an innocent man. The other two gunmen, "Lefty Louie" Rosenberg and "Dago Frank" Cirofici, made no statement. They seemed stunned.

Governor Glynn today declined to grant the request of five Jewish clergymen that he interfere with the execution of the four gunmen. They now must die Monday.

Atty. Bristow came in on the morning train from the east Friday.

Fire On Washington Ave

Thursday evening about six o'clock the fire department was called to 116 West Washington. A two room house owned by Chris Schlitt had caught fire from a defective flue. The roof was badly damaged but the balance of the house was saved. There was $340 insurance on the contents but we have been unable to learn how much was carried on the house.

Mrs. A. J. Morris went to Oklahoma City Friday and will go from there to Guthrie to visit her daughters.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick who has been to visit her sister in Missouri who has been very sick returned home Friday.

FIVE LOOSE THEIR JOBS

Say They Disobeyed Orders of Their Chief. Williams Denies Charge

Oklahoma City, April 9.—Charges that their dismissal was a result of their avowed support of "Bob" Williams, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, have been made by the five appraisers of the state school land department, recently "laid off" by Secretary John R. Williams. These charges are being investigated by three members of the commission. R. H. Wilson, state school superintendent, Joseph McClelland, state auditor and G. T. Bryan, president of the state board of agriculture, constituting a majority of the commission.

The appraisers are being questioned by the three members and one declared that Secretary Williams had stated to him that "the prairies of Oklahoma are dotted with the bleached and whitened bones of the men who have dared to oppose me politically." They further declared that the immediate cause of their removal was that they had refused to go into a political deal whereby the members of the state school land department would support J. B. A. Robertson, Williams' opponent, in return for Robertson's endorsement of the Cruce administration.

The statement has been issued by the secretary of the department that the appraisers were "laid off" because of the desire to eliminate useless expense when there was nothing at the present time for them to do in the department, and the charge is made by the supporters of the secretary that the appraisers are seeking to force their reinstatement by charging the political deal.

The men were recruited in New York state and left home last Monday morning. None of them have ever been out of New York state before and the Indians were especially interesting to them. They will be placed in the 5th service company.

Fable of the Two Frogs

Once upon a time there were two frogs—Percy and Johnny. Percy was lazy, but Johnny was a hustler. While playing around a spring house they fell into a jar of cream.

"Oh my, oh my," wailed Percy, "I see our finish. We'll both be drowned or starve to death. We can't get out of this mess."

"Isch ka Bibble," said Johnny Frog. "Cheer up and watch me. And you do as I do."

Then Johnny Frog began to kick and struggle. In a short time the cream thickened, and it was not long until they had churned an island of butter. Johnny and Percy climbed up on the island and hopped out to safety.

"Now you see what hustling does," said Johnny. "Had I given up and remained quiet, doing nothing, we should both have been drowned."

Johnny Frog is hustling business for Paul Kaiser's Confectionery and Cafe.
